

LIPTON'S TEA HINTS

There is nothing easier than to make tea well—except to make it badly. So here are some hints on how to make the best of it.

BUYING TEA. Tea is the cheapest and most economical drink in the world. From one pound of good tea you can brew as many as 200 cups. And it pays in the long run to buy good tea because it is more economical to use, and the difference between the cost of one cup of poor tea and one cup of good tea is so infinitesimally small as not to matter. But there is all the difference in the flavour and it is the flavour that is really the luxury that everyone can now afford.

STORE TEA IN AN AIR-TIGHT CONTAINER. Tea loses its flavour if it is exposed to the air for long, especially in a moist climate. It ought to be kept in a caddy, or in a glass jar with a screw top, or in clean tin.

USE THE RIGHT KIND OF TEA-POT. Nothing compares with an ordinary brown earthenware tea-pot for making good tea. This should be carefully cleaned, not just rinsed, to remove all stains and dried after use. When cleaning don't forget the spout; a small brush will come in handy for this.

YELLOW LABEL

MEASURE THE QUANTITY OF TEA CAREFULLY. "One teaspoonful per person and one for the pot" is a sound old-fashioned rule that has never been beaten. But if good tea is used there is no need to allow "one for the pot," unless very strong tea is wanted, for good tea is more economical than cheap tea.

USE ONLY FRESHLY BOILED WATER. Take care to warm the pot thoroughly before putting in the tea. Then pour on freshly boiled water—not water that has been allowed to simmer. Better tea will be made if the kettle is kept free from the lime or chalk deposits of hard water.

ALLOW FOUR MINUTES FOR INFUSION. Pour freshly boiled water on to the leaves until the tea-pot is full, but don't pour out the tea into cups until you have allowed it to stand for at least four minutes. The lid, of course, should be put back as soon as the water is poured into the pot, and then the whole should be covered with a cosy. Don't forget that tea should never be allowed to "stew." If it is allowed to stand too long tea loses all its virtue and its flavour.

INTERNATIONAL MOTOR EXHIBITION

German Industry Progress Illustrated

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, Feb. 15. The 4th International automobile and motor cycle show, the largest ever to be held in Berlin, both as regards the amount of exhibition space occupied and the bewildering array of entirely new models displayed, was opened by Herr Hitler on Saturday.

Most of the Cabinet Ministers were present, and almost the entire diplomatic corps, regional leaders of the National Socialist Party, higher officials from all the ministries, leaders and organisers of the German industry, and several hundred pressmen.

The exhibits were displayed in nine immense halls, many of the heavier vehicles, such as tractors, omnibuses, fire engines, and motorised fire fighting equipment were to be found in a large open air field, where demonstrations were in progress continuously.

Officials of the exhibition had the utmost difficulty in allocating parking space fast enough for the parade of visitors, numbering many thousands. The west end was ablaze with bunting, among which the national flags of Great Britain, the United States, France, and Italy were prominent and symbolic of the international character of the event. Many nations have sent their latest models for exhibition.

OLD MODELS ON VIEW

Where the opening ceremony took place, 80 models of more or less obsolete types of cars were on display, to show the evolution that has taken place in the motor industry. Fifty years ago two German engineers, Carl Benz and Gottlieb Daimler independently invented the motor-driven road vehicles, so that the exhibition was at the same time the Silver Jubilee of the birth of motor cars. The first car made by Benz was exhibited near the first diesel motor driven car ever seen, made by the world famous firm Da Benzag. The diesel-engine car is already expected to revolutionise motorised travel, and solve the fuel problem for many countries as well as cheapen travel and eliminate the risk of fire.

SYNTHETIC ACHIEVEMENT. The first speaker at the opening ceremony of the Berlin automobile and motor cycle show on Saturday was Herr Alimera, president of the German Motor Manufacturers Association. Outstanding achievements had been made by the German motoring industry, and a healthy state of the affairs existed due to phenomenal sales of both cars and motor cycles during the year under review.

A notable exhibit was to be found in synthetic tyres, displayed for the first time. The speaker was in the fortunate position to be able to inform the German nation that trials which the German Army had been carrying out for the past year had proved that the life and resistance of this synthetic rubber exceeded that of the natural rubber by ten to thirty per cent.—Transocean News Service.

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Brussels, February 14. It did not conform with Art. 88 of the Constitution, which says that the King is alone empowered to sign treaties. The President therefore refused to have the bill printed for distribution, according to press reports from Flemish circles.—Transocean News Service.

THE PURPOSE OF THE CHURCH

Yesterday's Sermon At The Cathedral

The Rev. H. W. Baines delivered the following sermon entitled "The Purpose of the Church" at the St. John's Cathedral yesterday. It is right at the time of year when the New Church Council is taking office and the Cathedral as a whole is setting sail on the adventure of another twelve months to ask ourselves what it is all about. I particularly do not want to ask the question "What is the Church?" because I think that that leads to a great deal of barren controversy. The question that matters is "What is the Church for?"

We who are here to-day feel that each of us is a member of society which however loose its own association may be has been in history most intimately connected with the life of our people. You cannot write English Church history without writing about English, you cannot write English history and not give a leading part to the Church. And when we come to think of it we know that this blood brother of the state as it has grown to be is a massive organisation with a rigid frame, work of legal precedent and immensely strong social tradition. It is a great institutional system working through the complex machinery of financial and administrative routine. And this Service in which we are taking part which is the peculiar creation of Anglicanism is a link which binds us to the whole of the rest of the Church of England in the British Isles and scattered over the Seven Seas. What is it all for? There is no use in denying the pressure of tradition within it nor the rigid strength that it draws from what is generally called the Establishment but at the same time we must be candid enough to understand that what the average man finds it hard to swallow about the Church is exactly this established institutionalised society. "What is all that for?" they say and they cruelly contrast the Church as it now is with the creative act which gave it birth.

TO THE OPEN MINDED

For to such open minded people—and many of them are within the Church—the one really formidable argument within the Church—the one really formidable argument against the truth of the Christian religion is the record of the Christian Church. That is no doubt partly due to the Englishman's inveterate morbid delight in criticising what you might call the Daily Mail Mind, a mentality that has often been blamed for being ready to run down ourselves but nobody else. The ordinary Englishman who has received a secondary education will know much more about the doubtful or disreputable episodes in the Church's history such as the Crusades or the Inquisition than he will of the social achievements of the Church in education, in the spread of knowledge, health, and the championing of the down-trodden. It is no good kicking against that disproportion. The Church, including the Church of England, is on the whole as bad at showing itself in a good light as the Conservative party in England with which it is often associated.

This blackened historical record goes along with its present divisions and consequent ineffectiveness in the mind of the open-minded observer. I am not saying that all those who attribute their own luke-warm loyalty to Christ to their disgust with His Church are being really honest but it seems to me to need no proof, and indeed I know that this is true all too well, that the Church's record, and the Church's present divisions furnish even kindly critics with a very large and vulnerable target.

WHAT WILL KEEP PEOPLE OUT

When you add to this the fact that many theologians in the past in expounding the doctrines of the Christian Church seem to have dwelt on what will keep people out of it instead of seeking how many it can include (rather after the fashion of the London bus conductor on a wet day) it can readily be seen that such an index will seem to an Englishman very different from what he has learnt of Christ of the Gospels. Christ's Church, he feels, and feels rightly, is a home not only for saints but also for sinners. Such a man too, is shocked by the triviality, as he thinks, of things which the clergy are apt to think terribly important and over which they will break each others heads. After all, he says, is not Christianity a matter of personal loyalty and devotion to Jesus, is not the discipline of Christ found most truly in my own obedience to His Spirit and searching of His teaching?

I don't think that I have over-painted this picture of the perplexed and sometimes the reluctant opposition of many of the best and most adventurous spirits of our day to the Church. I have met with personal loyalty to Christ and steadfast obedience to His way such as puts my own to shame in life and in death on the part of many men and women who scarcely ever darken the doors of a Church. So no doubt have you and I hope that you have realised, as I think I am realising, that the bond which unites these fine but lonely spirits with the Church of God, and in our case, the Church of England, is simply love of people.

THE PURPOSE OF THE CHURCH

The purpose of the Church, the answer to the question what the Church is for cannot be heard from any except the lips of Jesus. For He is the eternal Word and mouth piece of God. And if it be true that God so loved the world that He gave His Son for it, if it be true that if Christ were lifted up He would draw all men to Himself, if it be true that the Son of man came not to be ministered unto but to minister, then the purpose of the Church, what the Church is for, is to love men as God loved them in Christ, to lift them up to Him and to minister to them in Christ's name. On that we must all be agreed. There is no Church apart from the will of God, there is no Church now at this moment, apart from the act of God. No doubt it is possible to point the finger of scorn at the contrast between the Church as it is to-day and God's creative act in Christ which gave it birth but that doesn't alter the fact that the Church's justification lies only in its fulfilment of God's purpose: it may have gone away into a far country but at least it knows its way back to the place where it can say "Father, I have sinned before heaven and before thee."

The Spirit of God had to fashion for Himself a body which we know and which men could handle in Jesus. So again all that Jesus came to teach and to do and that we call His Spirit must fashion for Himself a body of people who live together and share His spirit. There is no real inconsistency between that spiritual love for men that we all recognise in Jesus and organised efficiency: the spirit must always fashion itself a body however great the risk of being stifled by organisation. It was so when the Christian movement started.

NOT A VOLUNTARY SOCIETY

The Church as the New Testament presents it to us was not a voluntary Society which a man might or might not decide to join, it was God's act through Jesus Christ. Within it men and women knew each other and were reconciled to each other and when they saw the evidence that God was at work in the world; here was the eternal purpose of God's love working itself out through schools, through hospitals, through artists through friendship, above all through homes. Within it the barriers were down and mutual trust and forgiveness were the schoolmasters that men had to the meaning of divine love. And that ought to be true of it now. In there not as much alienation and antagonism in the world to-day as there was in the world of St. Paul? Is it any less the will of God that His love for men should reach them with a home in which they may know conviction and hope and be reconciled to each other and live in peace?

I am not wishing to contrast the derivation of the Church from an act of God with its derivation from the mysterious ways of English history. I believe myself that certainly for a time the structure of the English Church is God's way of answering the need of the English character. I am drawing no contrast and making no invidious distinctions. What I am saying is that the Church is God's Church before it is Eng-

GOD'S INSTRUMENT

I cannot put it more simply than to say that Christ is God's word or instrument and the Church is Christ's body or instrument. We began by asking what it is for and I believe there is no other final answer than that "it is to embody the spirit of Christ wherever He would be."

And just one word to the people who think that to belong to a Church puts personal loyalty to Christ in a second place. There is no vitally developed religion which is not personal and certainly there is no Christianity; but remember this, that men only become persons in relationship with other men. Personality itself is social. You'd simply be a sort of stick of humanity unless you lived with people. Whenever the Church is true to her Master she is a home and a society where individual people grow in their own personality. If you want to find societies which steam-roller personality I would not point you first of all to the Christian Church to-day.

But again, anybody does poor service to the Christian Church who for a moment discusses what it is instead of what it is for. The Church will not be saved by conferences and committees which discuss its nature, it will be saved by the people who go, out and adventure for it for the Church is not in the world for its own sake but in order to redeem the world. If we turn in upon ourselves and introvertedly scrutinise our inwards we shall die of self smothering. The Son of God has called us to live for Him as His body in the world, therefore let us look out upon the world, claiming the love that is in His eyes and the power that is in His touch and the endurance that is in His steps.

CHUNG NAN COLLEGE

Principal Reviews Year's Work

The Fourth Annual Prize Distribution of the Chung Nan College was held in the presence of a very large gathering of students, parents and friends at the King's Theatre yesterday morning. Professor C. A. Middleton Smith, M.Sc., etc., Dean of the Faculty of Engineering of the Hong Kong University distributed the prizes to the successful candidates, and complimented the college on the success of the year's work. After the distribution of prizes, the pupils of the college rendered an excellent and enjoyable musical concert, which was well received by the audience.

THE REPORT

In addressing the gathering on the activities and progress of the college during the year, the Principal, Mr. Chung Wai Sun said:—

Professor Smith, Ladies and Gentlemen.— Before I present the report for the school year (September 1934-July 1935), I wish, on behalf of the school, to extend a hearty welcome to Prof. C. A. Middleton Smith, whose scientific achievements and literary attainments are well known throughout the length and breadth of the Colony. He is instrumental in the growth and expansion of the engineering faculty of the University of Hong Kong. It is very kind of him to honour us with his presence and to distribute prizes to our successful candidates.

I am glad to report that the school had quite a successful year in spite of the fact that the Colony was badly hit by depression. Although the attendance fell off a bit, yet the college was maintained throughout the year with the same efficiency, the same staff, and even with some improvements in the matter of equipment. I desire to thank the staff for their wholehearted co-operation and arduous labour.

ATTENDANCE

In September 1934, the attendance registers of all classes opened with a total figure of 243 which kept on increasing until it reached the maximum of 304 in November 1934.

EXAMINATION

The half yearly examination was held in January 1935 and the annual examination, in July 1935. In both examinations the pass percentages of all classes were not lower than those of the previous years.

However, I am pleased to announce the successes of our students in passing the entrance examinations conducted by London University and other Universities in China. Wong Kim Kwok is now studying at London University. His success reflects credit on the college. Li Sui Ling was one of four hundred successful candidates out of a total of five thousand who sat for the entrance examination of the National Central University, Nanking. The college took much pride in his triumph.

LABORATORY

The laboratory was installed in 1931. As many lots of instruments had arrived from England and Shanghai, the old room was too small for the purpose. The present laboratory occupies a spacious room with all necessary fittings. In physics, students could do experimental work on Heat, Light, Sound, and Electricity; whereas, in Chemistry, they could carry out all the practical course required for E.K.U. School Leaving certificate examination.

HOSTEL

The college spared no pains in improving the hostel after its removal to No. 47, Caine Road in the last summer, the boarders enjoyed living in an airy house with windows on three sides. The hostel commands a fine view of the quietest and most beautiful part of Caine Road, west of the Botanical Gardens.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion I wish to say that, while other institutions were groaning under the baneful effects of the depression, the college was fortunate enough to be able to maintain itself under unfavourable circumstances, to make some improvements in equipment and other directions, and, at the end of the school year, to find itself in a sound condition ready to commence the work of the coming year. (Applause.)

"BECKY SHARP"

Final Showing At Star Theatre

Becky Sharp, one of literary history's most intriguing, designing, resourceful adventuresses, cracked up on the emotion that most women cherish most—love. Becky was ambitious, of humble birth, she desired social recognition more than anything else in the world. To her sorrow she was in love with a handsome, penniless, profligate, young officer, the son of a nobleman she married him. He was disinherited by his wealthy maiden aunt. The next day her husband's father offered her his hand, which would have made her a lady and bridged the social gap for her in one stride. Love had double-crossed her. Had she only waited! No need to cry however, over spilt milk. She set herself to the round about way to society and riches. Her husband's pedigree privileged her to meet the men of quality if not the women. She met and conquered them. One was the Marquis of Steyne. This old rogue she coaxed, with veiled promises, into having her presented at court. Her social triumph was complete, but not her financial. When the Marquis demanded payment for his loans, love for her husband caused her to default. The result was an expose that ruined both her and husband. From Thackeray's "Vanity Fair" "Becky Sharp" has thrilled and delighted packed houses at the Star Theatre over the week-end, so don't miss to-day's performance.—C.T.A.

"BECKY SHARP"

Twelve years ago a slender, little girl, her greatest asset courage, was begging for a chance to be a chorus girl in a New York revue. To-day the same young lady is acknowledged to be among the greatest stars of the stage and screen. That is the history of the rise of beautiful, glamorous and accomplished Miriam Hopkins who

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL SCENES

At The Queen's

Thanks to the air mail, the Paramount Films and the Management of the Queen's Theatre cinema patrons were able to view the funeral scenes of His late Majesty King George V 18 days after the last rites.

The scenes throughout are very impressive and coupled with the soft music of the massed bands, or the Lament of the Pipers one sometimes forgets himself that, instead of viewing the scenes on the screen one is actually taking part in the procession itself.

It is a very fine picture, and one that must have been the fruit of extensive and careful organisation, as well as rapid production.

But many other scenes are deeply impressive, notably the West End in mourning, the bearing of the coffin along country roads from Sandringham to Wolverton Station, the arrival at King's Cross Station, and the slow, sombre and magnificent procession to Westminster Hall.

In addition to this real Paramount's "So Red The Rose" a story of the American Civil War is also very entertaining. Margaret Sullivan, Walter Connolly and Randolph Scott enact the chief parts. The picture is full of pathos, heartaches and laughter and in truth the programme on the whole should be seen at all costs.—"P."

"MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY"

Crowded houses at both the King's and Alhambra Theatres, heralded the initial simultaneous showings of "Mutiny on the Bounty" on Saturday, starring Charles Laughton, Franchot Tone, Clark Gable, and a galaxy of other actors, too numerous to mention that afforded a background for this epic film work, in flawlessly enacted, minor roles.

"Mutiny on the Bounty" is truly epic. I am at a loss to find any other word that describes this picture, and my only regret is that "epic" has become stale as a result of its overuse. In this one case however I really feel that no other word will fully describe the picture, and I use it without the slightest hesitation.—"Redin-cam."

snatched the most coveted part in screen history right out from under the noses of all competition in Hollywood.

Miriam Hopkins is "Becky Sharp" in the Pioneer full-colour picture by that name is now showing at the Star Theatre. The charm, the brilliance, the witchery, the wit and loveliness that great author William Makepeace Thackeray wrote into his immortal character are the scintillating qualities interpreted by the wholly captivating Miriam.

There is only one Miriam Hopkins. Critics find in her an inner kina. Critics find in her an inner fire that smoulders even in her most placid moments, and bursts into a brilliant flame of immeasur-

HONG KONG RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Spoon And Practice Shoot

The usual week-end Spoon and Practice Shoot held by the Hong Kong Rifle Association was postponed from Saturday afternoon until yesterday morning, when, in spite of the rain, a large number of members attended on the Stonecutters range.

The visibility was poor from start to finish, and the haze which is so often met with on this island, was much in evidence; on the other hand, the wind caused little trouble or thought, and with the steady light, conditions may, with justice, be said to have been fairly favourable to the competitors.

The feature of the shoot was the outstanding performance by Lance Corporal Peters, R.E. who, although shooting with the new "1914" rifle for the third time only, not only scored a possible at 200 yards, but shot so well at the longer distances, that his aggregate reached three figures. It is of interest to note that this is the second occasion within the last fortnight, and since the New Year that the "highest possible score" has been made at the shortest distance, at which range, the bull's-eye is only five inches in diameter, and incidentally both possibilities have been made by members of the Royal Engineers.

As regards the century which was made yesterday, this is the first time since the new targets came into use that a three-figure score has been made in the Colony, although Lieut. (E.) Berlyn of the Royal Navy made a similar total on the Army Ranges at Kowloon in October last.

The Honorary Secretary has received notification from the National Rifle Association authorities that drastic regulations are in course of preparation, and will be published shortly, restricting the cutting, or mutilation of the woodwork of the "1914" rifle to a minimum, and therefore members are strongly advised to refrain from making any alterations to their weapons until details of this ruling are received out here.

The Spoon Shoot held yesterday was shot for under the usual King's first-stage conditions i.e. one sighter and seven shots to count at 200, 500 and 600 yards with a highest possible score of 105; the leading scores were as follows:—

C. B. A. LADIES WIN

Caer Clark Cup Changes Hands

Mrs. White Scores Only Goal

In a game which was played at a cracking pace, the Central British Association Ladies defeated the Hong Kong Ladies, by one goal to nil at King's Park on Saturday, to capture the Caer Clark Cup for the first time, after striving for it for the past seven years.

By their defeat, the Hong Kong Ladies have had to surrender the cup, which they had held since the inception of the competition seven years ago.

MRS. WHITE SCORES

The winning goal came midway through the second half when Mrs. M. White accepted a pass from the right by Miss E. Rousseau to beat Mrs. J. Lunson, who was un-sighted, by a crowd of defenders.

A huge crowd of spectators turned up to witness an interesting game. The C.B.A. were full value for their victory, with perhaps Miss E. Rousseau and Miss M. Smith on the right flank providing the most enterprising wing on display.

Mrs. Bell (centre half) for the losers, played a magnificent game, but her splendid passes to the Hong Kong forwards which opened up the game time without number were completely nullified by the poor showing of the Hong Kong ladies in the face of resolute tackling of the Kowloon defence.

The game might well be said to have been an exhibition of the able enthusiasm when she is in action.

Similarly, there is only one Becky Sharp, whom the fearless Thackeray hurled at the heads of the elite of London's snobbish Mayfair in the year 1848; the Becky who said, upon fighting her way from "lowly birth to a place in aristocracy's inner circle, that she had won the privilege to talk with the fullest people in London.

respective strengths of the two teams on display, for rarely were either goalkeepers tested with direct shots.

C. B. A. Ladies:—Miss F. Best; Miss F. K. Walker, Miss M. P. Woolley; Miss F. Everest, Miss M. L. W. Bryson, and Miss L. L. Woolley; Miss E. Rousseau, Miss M. Smith, Mrs. Margaret White, Miss D. Hunt and Miss R. Blackmore.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

Country Boy makes good in the city. This favoured recipe for hero tales, the author of "The Three Musketeers," which BKO Radio brings to the screen, at the King's Theatre on Wednesday, used in establishing the most dazzling figure of fiction, the romantic d'Artagnan.

Dumas' great swordman rode to Paris town on an ungainly farm horse, a provincial youth yearning to join the crack military corps of the day; the King's guard. The ambitious lad from the soil, but never a yokel, triumphed over the finest blades in France, outwitted its cleverest sophisticates and the most powerful figure of the time, Cardinal Richelieu, to serve his Queen and to win a lovely lady.

D'Artagnan is portrayed by the New York stage star, Walter Abel. Paul Lukas, Margot Grahame, Heather Angel, Ian Keith, Rosamond Pinchof, John Qualen, are in the cast.

THE LATE MR. BATESON WRIGHT

A Tribute Paid By An Old Friend

Many old half-forgotten memories have been stirred by the news of Dr. Bateson Wright's death which reached the Colony last week.

I still vividly remember my first encounter with his astonishingly overwhelming personality. He informed me that I was a Channel Islander and it was characteristic of his impatience of contradiction that he ignored my modest disclaimer and continued to write me down as Jersey man until the day he left us.

During the whole of Dr. Wright's term of office, Queen's College was a Government Department quite separate from that of the Inspector of Schools. I quote from Irving's "Educational System of Hong Kong" published in 1915: "Dr. Eitel, appointed Inspector of Schools in 1879, did not, like Dr. Stewart, combine the duties of Inspector of Schools and Head Master of Queen's College. Dr. Wright was appointed Head Master. He and Dr. Eitel were unable to agree in their views, with the result that Queen's College was made independent of the Inspector of Schools." The two departments were again combined on Dr. Wright's retirement in 1909, when Mr. E.A. Irving, the then Inspector of Schools, became first Director of Education.

Although the fabric of Queen's College is to-day much as it was in Dr. Wright's time, in all other respects there is no resemblance between his school and that of to-day.

THE OLD TIMES

In 1904 the average daily attendance was over 1200 and few classes had less than sixty boys in them. Three classes at least were taken at one time in the Great Hall and when two of these, as I very well remember, were old style vernacular classes, the air was tremendous.

Government education was little more than a gesture, and during the whole of his headmastership Dr. Wright had to contend with rigorously restricted expenditure, and he received little encouragement from above.

But if the system of education then in vogue there seemed astonishingly crude to the newcomer from Great Britain, it is quite impossible to deny that, under Dr. Wright, Queen's College enjoyed a great reputation in North and South China.

Boys came from all parts of the country to benefit by the instruction provided and the leaving certificate was not only a valuable possession for its legitimate owner, but we found, as the result of an inquiry from the (then) Imperial Maritime Customs, that these documents were occasionally marketable commodities with an appreciable cash value.

CONDITIONS CRUDE

Conditions were undoubtedly crude but there was a thoroughness about Dr. Wright's methods worthy of a better end than the production of young men with a scanty knowledge of their own language and just enough English to enable them to obtain positions in the public and commercial life of China. An untiring worker himself, he worked his staff hard. Free periods were unknown. The European masters' day was a tiresome round of English drill relieved by a few periods of mathematics.

To-day, young men pass out of Queen's College who are incomparably superior education, but I doubt if their command of conversational English is much better than that of those who learned under Bateson Wright.

Bateson Wright, "Batey" as we used irreverently to call him, came to Hong Kong long before my time and I never understood how he found himself here, for in his previous career there was little indication of a leaning towards the teaching profession.

At Oxford he had devoted himself to Theology, Hebrew and Syriac, and I have always understood that had he not been up with the great Sages, he would have been the leading man in his particular line in his university days.

He was ordained in 1877 and the name of his first curacy was perpetuated in his Hong Kong home, "Adridge" in Conduit Road.

AS A PRIVATE TUTOR
He returned to Oxford for a time as a private tutor and came to Hong Kong in 1881, where he remained for 27 years, during which 9440 boys passed through his hands.

LADY ATTACKED IN KOWLOON

Daring Bag
Snatcher

A brutal attack was made on Mrs. E. L. Rocha, of No. 177, Sai Yeung Choi Street, on Friday night at about seven o'clock, when an unknown Chinese male attempted to rob her of her hand bag at the junction of Sai Yeung Choi Street and Playing-ground Field Road, about 100 yards away from the Police Training School.

Mrs. Rocha was returning home from the St. Theresa's Church, when suddenly a man came up from behind and gripped her arms. When she shouted for help the man used his fists and struck her several times on the chest and face.

On hearing the sound of footsteps coming from around the corner, the man took to his heels and escaped in the direction of the polo ground.

According to Mrs. Rocha it is suspected that the man must have been armed with knuckle-dusters, as her face was badly bruised. She was later treated at the Kowloon Hospital.

He was versatile and a great scholar and to those who got past his rugged exterior and somewhat overbearing manner it was matter for regret that he was not held in such esteem by the European section of the community as his scholarship merited.

I remember that once he was consulted by an inquirer as to the probable date of Abraham. He supplied the information sought for, adding characteristically—"as far as entirely imaginary person can be said to have existed at any given time."

He was perhaps wasted here, for I hold he was no teacher. He could with equal success have commanded a regiment or managed a railway. His discipline in which he believed for its own sake rigid and stern. He was a vigorous administrator. He made other people work and some of them bear the marks of his unsparing activity to the present day. His own capacity for work was amazing—too much so, perhaps, for unwilling to delegate authority, I think he tried to do too much himself.

He did not suffer fools gladly. It was the fools who suffered. He was merciless to incompetence and came down heavily on the least show of slackness. I well remember him apologising to the youngest member of his European staff for words used to an erring senior, which owed much of their pungency to his early theological training.

AN IMPATIENT MAN

For we must admit that he was impatient, even if later we learned that much of his impatience could be attributed to an excruciatingly painful malady from which he procured relief only after retirement.

Have I written too much of his weaknesses? I should say faults, for he had no weaknesses. But the many Chinese now well on in middle life who owe much to him, and we who served under him and were proud of him, knew that his quick temper was allied to a warm and generous heart and that, though hasty when things went wrong, it was all over in a moment and he never knew malice.

He was a big man and I hope those who are now working in the same field in happier circumstances will forgive one who remembers "when Plancus was consul," and regards him as the biggest name in the educational history of Hong Kong.

He was quite fearless and no respecter of persons.

He regarded the establishment of the university as premature and caused displeasure to the rulers of the day by trenchantly setting forth the case against the scheme in a public letter.

He enjoyed the good things of this world and dispensed in his home a generous hospitality in which the members of his staff frequently shared. An invitation to a croquet, however, was an ordeal, as he expected everyone to play as well as did.

I don't remember that he took part in any other form of sports. He was a genial host. He had a rich sense of humour and enjoyed as well as told a good story.

Peace to his ashes! He was, yes, he was a holy terror, but we would never allow anyone to say a word against him, and I think it was because we loved him.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Indian Charged

A fracas outside a flat in Morrison Hill Road, that necessitated the presence of reservists from a Police Station before order was restored, had a sequel at the Central Magistracy on Saturday when an Indian named Jatha Nand, 28 years of age, described as a dirty merchant made an appearance before Mr. W. Schofield charged on two counts relating to an assault on a fellow Indian.

The accused, who was clad in gray flannel trousers with a flyama coat on, pleaded guilty to assault on Mr. Menchra, a silk merchant residing at No. 10 Morrison Hill Road, and also to disorderly conduct.

Inspector S. Logan said that the assault was not serious but regarding the second offence, accused had used obscene language, and at the time of the incident "was very much the worse for drink."

A fine of $20 was imposed for disorderly conduct, while the accused was bound over in a personal bond of $75 to come up for judgment in a year, on the first charge.

THE ATTACK

Relating the facts of the case, Inspector Logan said that at about 9.30 p.m. on Friday, the defendant went to the complainant's house at No. 10 Morrison Hill Road, where he remonstrated with the latter using very foul language. The complainant suggested to the defendant that it would be better to go outside. In the street, defendant was alleged to have caught the complainant by the arm, and struck him on the jaw. The force of the blow knocked the complainant to the ground. A large crowd had gathered and the reservists had to be called out.

Inspector Logan said that he happened to be passing at the time, and when he arrived on the scene he saw the accused seated on the ground, obstinately refusing to move in spite of all efforts to make him do so by a Chinese constable. The accused was using obscene language but was finally induced to get into a rickshaw, whence he was taken to the station.

The defendant told the Magistrate that he was passing at the time, and when he arrived on the scene he saw the accused seated on the ground, obstinately refusing to move in spite of all efforts to make him do so by a Chinese constable. The accused was using obscene language but was finally induced to get into a rickshaw, whence he was taken to the station.

The Magistrate remarked that it seemed curious that the accused was emphatic that the complainant was responsible for the assault. Inspector Logan said that when the accused was taken to the station he did not have a coat on. The next morning accused asked the police what they had done to his coat. It would seem from this that the accused did not possess his full faculties at the time of the assault.

From Manila In Five Hours

Air Commodore Smith Describes Trip

Two of the three British flying boats from No. 205 Flying Squadron engaged on a "good will" flight to Japan arrived at Kai Tak yesterday afternoon, shortly after 1.30 p.m. having made a straight course from Manila, which they left at 6.30 a.m. yesterday. Thus the trip was made in 5 hours, in conditions that described as "particularly favourable." A slight wind from the North East that shifted round to a more Easterly direction and thus became a tail wind, was in a large measure due to the seaplanes arriving here earlier than their calculated time, explained Air Commodore Sydney W. Smith O.B.E., to a "Daily Press" representative yesterday afternoon.

Both boats averaged 90 knots (air speed) on the journey up, approaching the harbour from Sulphur Channel, after which they made perfect landings in the waters opposite Kai Tak.

The two seaplanes that landed here were Singapore 111, K. 3594, under Squadron-Leader K. B. Lloyd, and Singapore 111, K. 3592 under Flight-Lt. C. S. Ricard. Regarding K. 3593, it was explained that this ship unfortunately developed engine trouble when about an hour out from Kudat on the way to Manila. One engine failed but the flight was continued to Manila on three engines and actually only 5 knots (air speed) was lost. This flying boat under the command of Wing-Commander C. L. Scott, D.S.C., is remaining in Manila, and it is anticipated that she will make a direct hop to Amoy, where she will rejoin the two flying boats.

BOATS WERE MOORED IN THE RIVER

It was especially dangerous to take off because it was quite likely there was a good deal of timber floating about from the jungles nearby.

ON WEDNESDAY (12th) THEY TOOK off for Kudat where they stayed one night before making for Manila. It was then on this flight that engine trouble was experienced on Wing-Commander Scott's flying boat which was carrying Air Commodore Smith at the time. One engine failed but the trip was continued with three engines. The journey from Kudat to Manila was favourable and Manila was reached in good time.

Air Commodore S. W. Smith, O.B.E.

NEW ENGINE

It was found necessary to have a new engine despatched from Hong Kong to the boat in Manila, and this, according to word received arrived in the Philippine capital yesterday. The flight northwards will be resumed by the two flying boats to-morrow and this will give two full days for the necessary alterations to be made on the craft at Manila.

THE TRIP

Regarding the trip from Manila up, Air Commodore Smith said that it was particularly favourable, with the sea very calm. Between Pratas and Hong Kong they ran into some low clouds, which were in some places as low as 100 feet. This caused some anxiety to the airman. The whole crew changed from summer uniform to winter wear in Hong Kong, special heavy leather flying-suits, fur-lined caps, and thick woollen underwear having been brought to the Colony by the H.M.S. Cornwall. The summer suits will be left here until the return flight to Singapore.

Describing the trip from Singapore, Air Commodore Smith said that they made a very speedy crossing to Kuching, the visibility being particularly good. The coast at some times could be seen 100 miles away. In Kuching they stopped with Sir Vyner Brooke Rajah of Sarawak. On the day that they were scheduled to continue their flight a thunder storm broke out commencing at about 4 a.m. which persisted till 11 a.m. when it was too late for the fliers to leave. The storm, while it lasted, was the worst experienced there for some years. There was no visibility at all, and as the flying

The exact times and dates of departure from the various ports of call, said Air Commodore Smith were as follows: Left Singapore 7 a.m. (February 10), arrived Kuching 11 a.m. Left Kuching (Feb. 12) 7 a.m. arrived Kudat 10 a.m. Left Kudat (Feb. 13) 6.30 a.m. arrived Manila 1 p.m. A stay was made at Manila during Friday and Saturday. Left Manila 6.30 a.m. yesterday arrived Hong Kong 1.30 p.m. yesterday.

While in Manila Air Commodore Smith transferred to the K. 3594. It is anticipated that the flying boats will leave Hong Kong to-morrow for Amoy, 270 miles away. There they will be re-joined by the K. 3593.

Air Commodore Smith said that they had been accorded the utmost hospitality at each port of stay. At Kuching they were given a salute of 11 guns, and were accorded a guard of honour. A dinner and dance was later held at the Istana, where Air Commodore Smith remained as a guest to Sir V. Brooke.

At Manila, Air Commodore Smith called on the Commander-in-Chief, Admiral Murphy, and the customary salute of 11 guns was fired.

President Quezon also accorded Air Commodore Smith an interview. Air Commodore Smith is staying at Government House during his stay in the Colony, while his brother officers are messaged at Kai Tak Officers Quarters.

To-day it is expected, official calls will be made on Sir Andrew Caldecott, Governor of Hong Kong, and the General Officer Commanding, Major General A. O. Bartholomew.

CORRESPONDENCE

BIRTH-CONTROL PROPAGANDA

(To The Editor, Hong Kong "Daily Press.")

Sir,—In view of the wide publicity that has been given to the forthcoming visit of "Margaret Sanger," the birth-control propagandist, readers of the local newspapers might easily be led to believe that the public are unanimous in welcoming this lady, and that enlightened opinion is altogether in favour of the cause that she is promoting. I wish, therefore, to point out that the Catholic population of Hong Kong, in common with their co-religionists all over the world, are completely opposed to the practice and the advocacy of artificial birth-control, and on their behalf I wish to enter an emphatic protest against open propaganda for it in this Colony.

The Catholic view of this propaganda is that it is not merely immoral but also highly dangerous in its social consequences. In spite of the spacious manner in which the case for contraception is presented, it is ultimately an appeal to selfishness, and it is based on the principle that self-interest is preferable to self-control, and once this is admitted the whole basis of civilized life is undermined. The pretence that this practice makes for happier married life and a diminution of divorce is dishonest, for it is contrary to fact, and the claim that it will do away with the excuse for extra-marital relations shows, if it is seriously meant, a profound ignorance of human nature. With the breakdown of such restraint as is imposed by normal married life, there follows a lessening of respect for the institution of marriage, and then a lowering of the standards of truth and honour which are always dependent on individual self-control.

Whatever may be said of Mrs. Sanger's campaign in India, where she was snubbed by Gandhi and openly opposed by prominent Hindus and Muslims, as well as Catholics, there seems to be something peculiarly impertinent about her coming with a "message" to China—a self-appointed emissary from the country that is most conspicuous in the world for its low sex life to the country that is most remarkable in the world for its reverence for family life. It is surely an unworthy thing for a stranger to come to a country and ask it to lower its ideals. This is Mrs. Sanger's mission. The birth-control advocates' philosophy of marriage is "sex for pleasure without the annoyance of children; their solution of poverty is: let there be no children. Mrs. Sanger has a "message for China," it is: Suicide—Yours, etc.

Thos. F. RYAN, S.J.

Editor, "The Rock."

BANK OF EAST ASIA

A Good Year Reported

The Seventeenth Ordinary Yearly Meeting of Shareholders of The Bank of East Asia, Limited was held on Saturday, the 15th February, 1936, at 2.30 p.m. at its registered office, No. 10, Des Voeux Road C.

The Hon. Sir Shouson Chow presided, and there were present Messrs. Li Koon Chun, P. K. Kwok, Wong Yun Tong, Chan Ching Shek, Li Lan Sang, Wong Chu Son, Kan Ying Po (Directors), Kan Tong Po (Chief Manager), Li Tse Fong (Manager), and the following shareholders Messrs. J. E. Joseph, A. Gray, F. Schreiber, Fung Ping Fan, Fung Ping Wah, Tai Shuk Hon, K. K. Wong, Lo Hau Fook, Li Chak Tin, Tam Cheung Wing, Fung Kang Yue, Li Pak To, Chow Chi Nam, Chan Shu Ming, Li Tung, and many others.

After the notice convening the meeting has been read by the Chief Manager, The Chairman said:

"The report of the Directors together with the Balance Sheet at 31st December 1935 and the auditors' report having been in your hands for some time I will, with your permission, follow the usual practice of taking them as read."

The result of the year's working, including the sum of $390,497.85 brought forward from the previous account, shows a net profit of $1,012,797.52, which compares very favourably with that of the previous year. I think you will agree with me that this is highly satisfactory and reflects great credit on the management both here and at our branch offices.

CONDITIONS STILL UNFAVOURABLE

When I addressed you last year I struck a note of optimism by saying that the outlook for the year under review was more hopeful. I also remarked that one of the chief obstacles to a speedy revival of trade was the instability of exchange. During the greater part of last year trade conditions in this Colony continued to be unfavourable, but with the recent establishment of a stable currency by China, general conditions during the last few months have shown definite improvement. I hope these improved conditions will continue during the current year.

The addition of the sum of $776,993.34 to the Bank Building Account represents the amount of final payments made to the contractors on completion of the new building for our Head Office in Hong Kong. This new building, as it stands to-day, is one of the finest edifices in the Colony, and great credit is due to the architect and the contractors. I am sure it will form a fitting home for our bank for many years to come. In spite of the abundance of new office accommodation at the present time, most of our offices on the upper floors have been let, yielding a fair return on the capital outlay.

I wish to draw your attention to a change in the presentation of the present Balance Sheet in which the Investment account is shown more fully. You will observe that it consists mainly of Government Bonds and debentures.

The Directors feel no doubt that you will endorse their policy in transferring the sum of $150,000.00 to General Reserve, thus bringing this account to a total of $2,250,000.00.

DIVIDEND AND BONUS

I hope our shareholders will be satisfied with the Directors' recommendation to pay a dividend of $6.00 and a bonus of $1.00 per share for the year, making a net return of 7% on their Capital.

The Directors recommend the appropriation of a sum of $35,500.00, out of the net profit, as payment of bonus to the staff in recognition of their loyal and meritorious service.

Under the Companies Ordinance of 1933 the total amount of fees paid to the Directors should have been shown in the statement of accounts before you. In order to comply with the provision of this ordinance, I take this opportunity before I formally move the adoption of the accounts, to inform you that the amount of fees paid to the Directors for the year 1935 was $15,000.00.

With these remarks, I beg to propose that the sum of $1,012,797.52 standing at the credit of Profit and Loss Account be dealt with as follows:—
To pay a Dividend of

LETTER THIEVES WELL PUNISHED

System Worked Successfully

Stated by the police to have been educated at Queen's College, a 32-year-old unemployed man, named Lui Sap, appeared before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy on Saturday in answer to charges arising from the theft of a letter from No. 152 Johnston Road, on February 8. It was stated by the Police that the accused spoke fluent English but had not been successful in securing employment.

Another unemployed man, Chung Leung, 35 years of age, was also charged with implicitly in the "letter stealing racket." He was charged with the actual theft, while Lui Sap was charged with receiving the letter.

Detective Sergeant A. Fitches of the gang. The first accused said that Lui Sap was the brains of the stealing while Lui Sap wrote "bogus" notes which were re-inserted in the original envelope, to the mutual benefit of the "racketeers." The letters were stolen from private boxes and then subjected to steam heat. The contents of the letter were carefully perused before a bogus one was inserted. The two accused were arrested on information received.

Relating to the present offence, the two accused had attempted to get $10 from Wong Ng Mut, a woman residing at Johnston Road by sending her a letter demanding the money. Luckily the woman did not have the cash when the first accused called at the house.

Police inquiries had shown that the accused had obtained $75 from a woman only three doors away, by a similar trick. This type of theft was quite common, said Det. Sgt. Fitches, but in fairness to the second accused he had to say that the defendant had given every assistance to the police after his arrest. Accused's record showed that he had a previous conviction for the same offence, nine months ago.

The first defendant was sentenced to 3 months' hard labour, while the second accused received a sentence of 4 months' imprisonment.

He was removed to the Shing Mun Hospital following a 30 foot fall from a scaffold at the North Quarry.

SHEET ANCHORS

The clamour against the British and French Governments will not, we hope, because the public mind as to the true significance of the present crisis. The centre of the trouble, let us never forget, is the League of Nations: the difference between the pretensions and the realities of that institution, like an unseen step in the floor, or an unseen stone in the ice, has brought about this rather painful catastrophe. To go back to origins, the basis of the idea was that all the nations which counted were to combine to keep the peace. But first of all the United States stood out of it, and then Japan and Germany, so that, as mere matter of fact, it never has been what it pretended to be. As, however, its power declined so its pretensions grew. It became a vested interest, its high priests proclaimed it almost as a new religion, and from Geneva flowed two great streams of propaganda, one that its "collective security" sufficed to prevent war, and the other that armaments were barbarous and obsolescent survivals. Ministers are now blamed for "betraying" the League of Nations; but may it not be the other way about? May not the present chagrin be due to the fact that these two Governments learned too much, too long, too heavily upon something which could not bear the weight they laid upon it? "Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it."

In this faith not only our present Ministers, but successive Governments neglected the true sheet-anchor of British policy, which has always been, time out of mind, the British Navy. They neglected besides the Army and the Air Force. When we shouted into the ear of the country the danger of such neglect, it was like trying to awake a man who has been drugged. We were heavily rebuffed for being "militarist," "reactionary," and so forth. Why, it is only a few years since by the London Naval Treaty for which Mr. Ramsay MacDonald was chiefly responsible, all considerations of strength at sea were thrown to the winds, and some time later Mr. Baldwin described the League of Nations as the sheet-anchor of British policy. All the politicians of every party testified to the same effect, and as a final demonstration of faith a Minister of the League of Nations was created. Our warnings being disregarded, we could only wait for that disillusionment which always comes to those who set their trust in unrealities. Then this trouble came, this Mediterranean storm, and the Government threw out the sheet-anchor of the League of Nations. Not being made of iron but of spelter, it crumpled up and dragged when a strain was put upon it. Of all the fifty strands in the cable of collective security, there were only two worth considering—France and Great Britain. Too heavy a load was put upon the French strand, and it showed signs of breaking, so an anxious Secretary of State thought there was nothing for it but to throw out these peace proposals. All the blame is put upon the British and French Governments, who are accused of being insincere in their faith; but it appears to us that their fault lay not in too little but in too much faith in what was essentially an unground policy.

It seems to us manifestly absurd to blame the present Government with any lack of belief in the League. They have stuck to it beyond the limits of prudence, and only when its failure threatened shipwreck did they fall back upon the other alternative. But there are many people who seem to have transferred their allegiance from Westminster to Geneva, and a Minister is more blamed for giving away a piece of African desert than for surrendering our Indian Empire. There will be some gain in this unfortunate affair if it opens the eyes of the country to the realities of the situation. Those who clamour against the Government should be asked what alternative policy they propose. Can they guarantee that the fifty

YOUNG SAMSON SUBDUED

Too Tough For The Police!

It took the combined efforts of four European police officers before a young and stalwart looking Chinese, struggling violently, was handcuffed and transported by ambulance from the Central Charge Room, Police Headquarters last night, bound for the Lunatic Asylum.

This young man claimed to be able to "put a fire out at a single command" and could "divide the waters in the harbour," and he was the same individual who "was going to heaven from the middle of Happy Valley in six months' time."

When the tail light of the ambulance disappeared round the corner, more than one person breathed a sigh of relief. "Phew," said one, "by gosh, he was strong!" Another said: "He had wrists like steel."

SMASHED CHAIRS

Shortly after 9.30 p.m. the young man accompanied by a Chinese detective made his appearance in the Charge Room. It was explained by the proprietor of the Great Eastern Hotel, that the man had created a disturbance in one of the rooms of the hotel which he had taken for the night. He had smashed three chairs and caused no end of trouble.

Asked what his name was, the man did not reply at once but commenced an elaborate plan of prayer. First he struck various attitudes and finally knelt at the door of the Charge Room and with arms upright touched his forehead on the ground several times, muttering all the while. Next he sat on the floor and uttered loud incantations, this time with large wooden beads hung about his neck.

Eventually it was gleaned that his name was Chung Yau Sang, of 12 Caroline Hill Road. He claimed that he had asked the hotel folks to clean his room, and they had refused to do so. They had even sworn at him!

Pointing at the hotel man he said: "you see what will happen in three months' time. You do this to me!"

In the meanwhile an ambulance had been sent for. The Inspector on duty had decided that there was only one place for Chung. It was the asylum. Chung took off his singlet and renewed his prayers.

Next, he challenged the Inspector to push him off his feet. Then he took the characteristic pose Chinese boxers adopt when in combat, and turned this way and that, with each fresh move striking himself on the chest with resounding thumps. "See that wooden ruler. I can bend one three inches thicker," he said.

SUBTERRANEAN FAILS

Just before the arrival of the ambulance, a woman came into the room. She said that she was his wife. Almost immediately Chung (whose attention had been attracted elsewhere) struck at her when he saw her, using language that sounded forceful (he spoke the Northern dialect). With the arrival of the ambulance it was realised that it would be no easy thing to get the demented man in the vehicle.

The Inspector on duty had a brain wave. "Tell him that there is a fire and we want him to command it to stop! He must go in the car." The interpreter faithfully translated this, and Chung nodded enthusiastically. However when he got outside, he hesitated, then protested.

It eventually took the combined strength of four men to get him inside with his hands handcuffed behind.

His wife said that he always behaved strangely. He was a Buddhist and had bought the beads from somewhere unknown to her. Other relatives made an appearance, and it was noticeable that they never spoke to him, but only listened patiently when spoken to.

nations of which they have talked so boastfully will each contribute even one warship to a League Navy? Or do they intend the British Fleet to go forward alone? Do they propose that "oil sanctions" be imposed by some nations while others ignore them? Can they out of the League of Nations offer one effective instrument to support Great Britain in the coercion of Italy? Have they, in short, anything practical to offer beyond a plentiful supply of moral indignation?

PARTIES GALORE

On Tuesday night at the Hong Kong Hotel there were a number of parties celebrating some occasions or another and the place seemed very gay and full. Captain and Mrs. Coltart brought a large party which included several of the German officers, they all had been dining previously on the Medway. A birthday party was given by one of our Gunner friends, then there was a very large farewell party for Major Brown who left Hong Kong the next day. Captain and Mrs. Ferguson brought a party which included Miss McLay who looked very sweet in pale pink, Miss Luke in a tarten taffeta dress and Mrs. Livesey, in black velvet. Miss Murray arrived later in the evening with a party of German Officers and one of our well known friends from the Dorsetshire. Dr. and Mrs. Valentine were there and Miss Simmonds was most attractive in dark green velvet. Mrs. Wilkinson who was in a most becoming flowered dress was with her brother and "Chris Martin". Mrs. Delmaine was in a lovely shade of mauve and Mrs. Portman in silver which suited her so well. Heather Gerrard was lovely in black studded with diamonds and Mrs. Smith Wright who we have not seen for a long time, was attractive in white.

TO THE GERMAN CRUISER

We have very pleased and lucky to have gone on board the German Cruiser "Karlsruhe" and to have been able to meet the Captain and his Officers and also to have been taken over the ship. We found them all charming and hospitable especially the Captain and his A.D.C. On Friday evening there was an "At Home" from 5 to 7 p.m. on board and on Saturday a tea dance which was most enjoyable. We danced on the deck to the ships band and German music which was delightful and how well our German friends

GERMAN CLUB ENTERTAINS

Farewell Reception To "Karlsruhe"

Last night the German community gave a farewell reception for Commander Siemens and the members of the German cruiser "Karlsruhe" at the German Club. The cruiser had sent a delegation of about 120 men, while of the German and foreign community only those with invitations could be admitted, owing to the limited room.

Mr. and Mrs. Amman had done marvels in decorating the floor where the Club is situated and the flat below, which had been courteously made available for the evening. All walls were decorated with flags and drawings, the ceilings draped with paper and there were pretty lanterns everywhere.

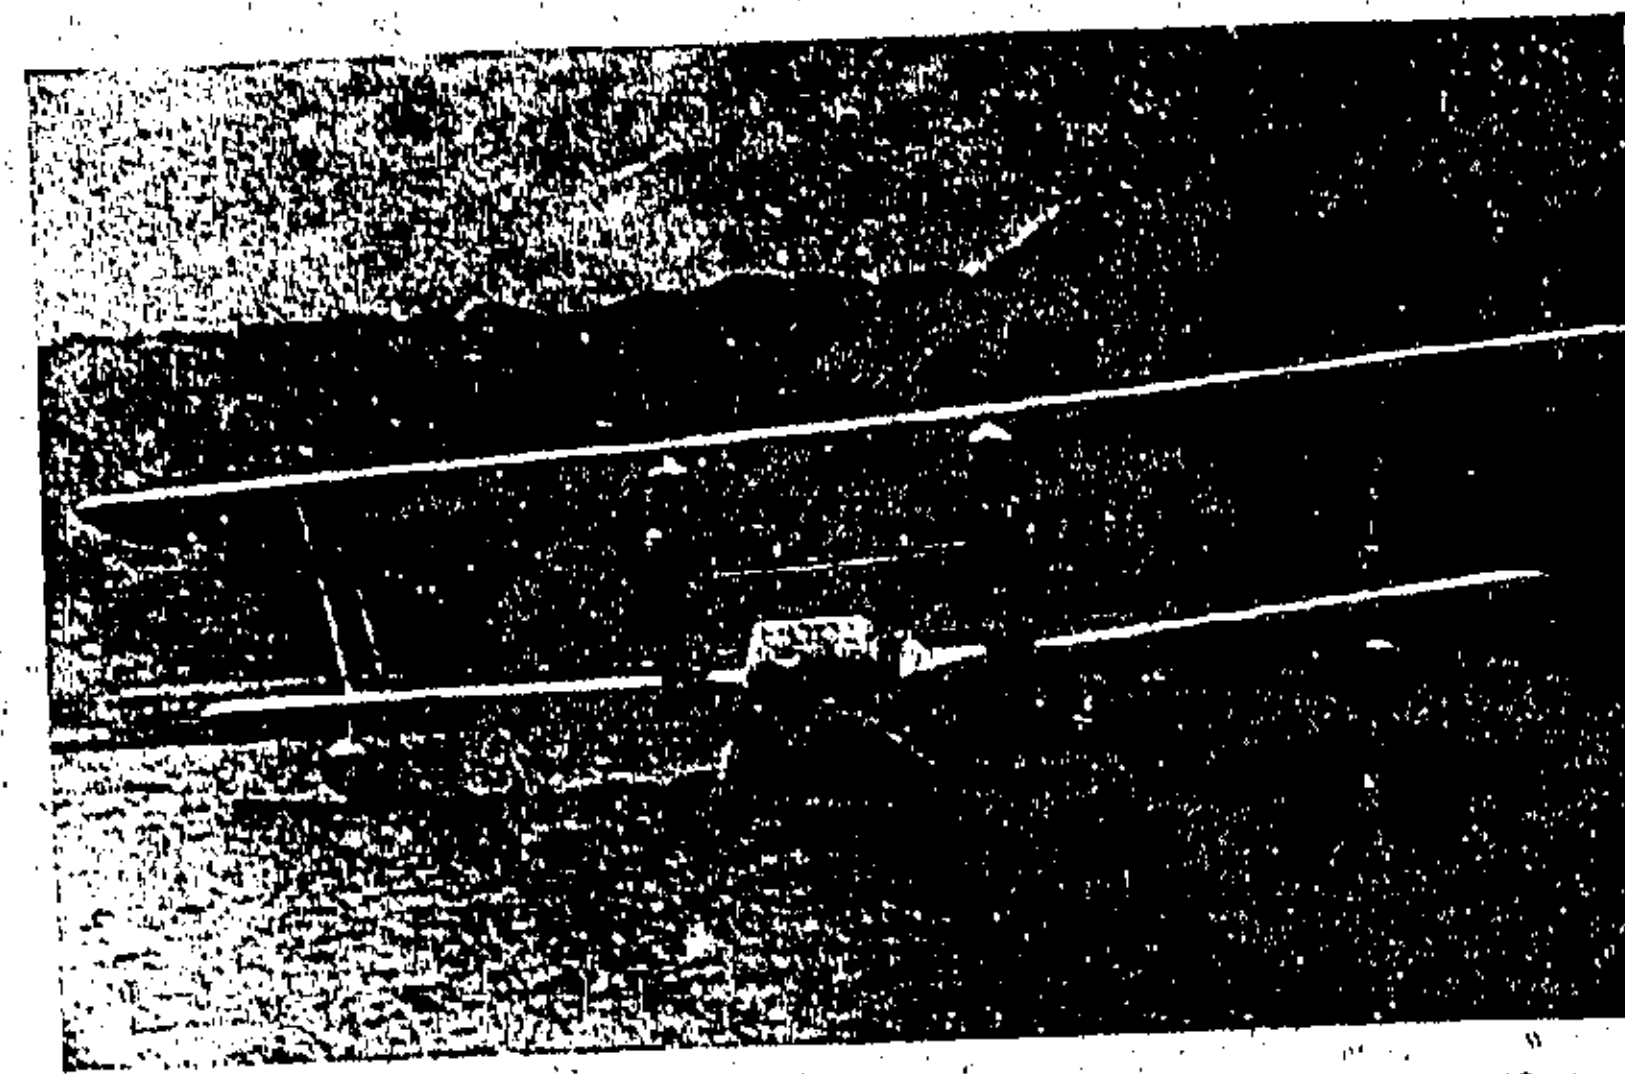

All rooms on the top floor had been cleared and dancing went on the whole time, while there had been erected two additional bars. Downstairs all space was set with tables, and from a "buffer" with an enormous choice of eatables everybody took his cold dinner.

The orchestra of the cruiser had been divided, and at three different places there was music.

During dinner, Commander Fragattenkapitän Siemens rose and addressed the gathering. He gave expression of his deepest gratitude for the cordial reception experienced, the extent of which, he said, could never have been anticipated. Not only the German community or the British Navy, but the whole British community of the Colony had done everything to make the stay of the cruiser agreeable, and had succeeded to the very last. "We are taking very many souvenirs of friendly receptions and entertainments with us, and Hong Kong will always remain a very nice remembrance to us."

CONSUL'S THANKS

After the Commander, the German Consul, Herr Gipperich spoke in his own name, thanking the British and German community for the cordiality shown towards the members of the cruiser. He said: "When I asked the Foreign Ministry to have the next German danced. The party finished up with the band playing the "Call to Arms" and the two National Anthems. The Captains and the Officers quarters are extremely nice and very spacious and comfortable. I am told they have 300 officers on board and well over 100 Cadets. We were all pleased to see Lady Southern on board on Friday evening looking so well and very cheerful and I know she enjoyed herself immensely. We will be sorry to see the "Karlsruhe" sail to-morrow but hope they will come back and visit us again before very long.

(BY "ONLOOKER.")

Wedding bells are ringing with alarming frequency these days—or so it seems to me—and if they go on at this rate there will be no more young "Lovelles" to be written up in the gossip columns, and gossip writers will lose some of their best copy.

The Strahan-O'Brien wedding was the most important social affair early in the week, and in spite of national mourning, necessitating a certain quietness there was a cheerful atmosphere of sympactic happiness amongst all the guests, and every body agreed that the bride looked lovely, and that her dress was one of the most beautiful bridal dresses that they had ever seen. It was a perfect miracle as to fit, and looked as if it hadn't got a seam in it; that clever petal effect at the neck was infinitely becoming to the felicitous wearer.

The bridesmaids wore blue Molre dresses—also most becoming. Miss Betty Gerrard was a bridal attendant for the last time that day, for next week she will be the principal participant at her own wedding.

Afterwards—at the reception—there were lots of attractive dresses to be seen amongst the guests. Of the younger brigade noticed Miss Heather Gerrard wearing the most intriguing hat of green, and Miss McLay looked most attractive in brown with a hat of the halo persuasion and a demure little cape of softest brown fur.

Miss Alwen Owen Hughes wore that shade of red which suits her so admirably, and Mrs. Cavanagh Mainwaring was most arresting in black.

Of course all the submarine folks were there including Captain and Mrs. Coltart, and I caught a glimpse of the Commodore and Mrs. Sedgwick in the distance.

After the speeches—which were very much to the point, and delightfully brief Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien went round and talked to people, and then came photographs and the triumphant departure.

JAPANESE-SOVIET WAR POSSIBILITY

France Watching Events In Far East

Paris, Feb. 15. A Japanese-Soviet conflict is regarded calmly in French official quarters as "not very grave." The French Government is principally engrossed by questions of German rearmament, Austrian independence, the attack on Leon Blum with its attendant repercussions, and the coming elections. Nevertheless the Government is watching developments in the Far East owing to France's imperial interests and in view of the Franco-Soviet pact.

The pact is limited to Europe and does not apply to an unprovoked attack on the Soviet by Japan, but authoritative French quarters consider that the pact should exert a moderating influence for peace between Japan and the Soviet. It is felt that Japan is less likely to attack the Soviet because the latter's rear will be protected against Germany by France.

On the other hand the pact might also act as a deterrent to Soviet Russia because she will not receive French aid against Japan. The "Temps" in a leading article believes that the major interest in both countries is to avoid war and urges a conciliatory settlement of frontier differences. There is information that "Financiere" advocates frontier delimitation by an international commission of enquiry.

SITUATION TENSE

Shanghai, Feb. 15. Reports from Dairen and other Manchukuo centres indicate that the situation on the Manchukuo-Mongol border remains tense, but there have been no new developments since the Olokhon incident. Meanwhile panic-stricken Chinese continue to pour by train from Manchukuo into China, convinced that an outbreak of war is imminent. On the contrary, well-informed people believe that this is most unlikely, although they recognize that any further border clash might prove to be a spark for a conflagration which Tokyo and Moscow would be unable to control.

ANOTHER SKIRMISH

Tokyo, Feb. 15. A message from Hailar states that the military authorities have received a report that approximately 1,000 Outer Mongolian troops with four armoured cars appeared in the vicinity of Khalkhinasi, at the northern end of Bulunor Lake, and attacked the Japanese and Manchukuo forces there. They were repulsed after several hours' fighting. The casualties are not reported.

The Kwangtung Army authorities are taking steps to maintain very close observation of the frontier, with a view to preventing similar incursions.

FUNDS VOTED

The Cabinet has decided, in view of the present events in Manchukuo, to appropriate four million yen from reserve funds for the Army, ninety thousand yen for the Navy and a hundred and seventy thousand yen for the Foreign Affairs Department.

MONGOL SPY

Dairen, Feb. 15. The Soviet authorities yesterday formally presented the Mukden authorities with a notice of the closure of the Mukden Soviet Consulate, according to a Japanese report, but the Dairen Soviet Consulate is unable to confirm it.

Hailar reports announce the capture of a Mongol spy, who is alleged to have confessed that the Outer Mongols are planning to attack the weaker spots of the Manchukuo frontier. Otherwise the news from the front is thoroughly allayed.

ITALIANS ENGAGED IN BIG BATTLE

Rome, Feb. 16. Italian troops on the Eritrean front which began an offensive on February 11 have been engaged in a big battle to the south of Makale since dawn on Saturday, states an official communiqué. No further details are available.

HEAVY RAIN

Addis Ababa, Feb. 16. The heaviest rains since September fell yesterday. There was an uninterrupted nine-hour downpour at Addis Ababa. The Dessale road is now in fearful condition. It is feared motor traffic will have to be suspended for many weeks.

ETHIOPIANS IN FLIGHT

Paris, Feb. 16. According to French reports, Marshal Badoglio triumphed southward of Makale. It is stated that he was opposed by 80,000 Abyssinians commanded by Ras Mulgeta, of which 30,000 fled, while there were 20,000 casualties. It is stated that troops of Ras Kassa and Ras Seyoum in the Tembien are in danger of being cut off. The Italian losses are probably 400 killed and 500 wounded.

ITALIAN WAR MACHINE FED BY AMERICA

Senator Pope's Views

Washington, Feb. 15. Every man, woman and child in America knows that the Italian war-machine is running only because United States exporters are free to supply all the oil. Senator Mussolini wants, declared Senator Pope (Idaho), leader of the small group in Congress who want America to back the League, during a broadcast last night. He added that the rest of the nations, which were endeavouring to stop Signor Mussolini, knew perfectly well that their efforts were frustrated by the isolated and inconsistent foreign policy of the United States.

MUSSOLINI PRESIDES AT MEETING

Details Kept Secret

Rome, Feb. 15. Signor Mussolini presided at the third meeting of the Italian Supreme Defence Council, but for the first time the details of the meeting were not divulged. An authoritative spokesman stated that Italy's stock of oil was much larger than estimated by the Committee of oil experts. This is the first comment regarding the committee's report as the papers hitherto have been arguing whether oil sanctions were possible.

VENEZUELA STRIKE SETTLED

President Accedes To Demands

Caracas, Feb. 15. The general strike, which paralysed the city for two days was called off owing to the President conceding most of the demands of the demonstrators, including the dismissal of officials of the former regime and the late dictator, General Gomez, and raising the press censorship. The Foreign Minister has resigned. Ten persons died and a number were wounded as the result of the police firing on a crowd of demonstrators yesterday.

FOG DESCENDS ON LONDON

London, Feb. 15. The severe cold of the last few days has given way to milder weather. Fog descended on London this morning and by mid-day was thick over a wide area. There was great dislocation of traffic and home going crowds from the central districts, many of which had suffered inconvenience and delay on their inward journey due to electric failure of southern suburban lines, were held up by traffic congestion.

WHITE CITY AND OLYMPIA

British Industries Fair Features

London, Feb. 15. Sections of the British Industries Fair at White City and Olympia, London, and Castle Bromwich, Birmingham, open on Monday. The King is paying a visit to the London sections one day next week. The Fair remains open till February 28.

The value of goods displayed is estimated at nearly £2,000,000 of which the Birmingham Jewellers' exhibit represents £60,000.

At Castle Bromwich extensions have been made to the exhibition hall, the largest fair building in the world. Eleven miles of exhibits will be served by small electric cars which will pick up and set down visitors at desired points. Several stands are organised by the local development board and on one of these is a 21-foot long model of the Cunard-White Star liner Queen Mary.

The liner Queen Mary also figures in the White City section where 20 firms concerned in manufacture of 13 miles of fabrics required for the decoration of the ship's interior are showing some 130 different silks, satins, velvets, brocades, linens—especially dyed to withstand sea air—tapestries and other materials. The Dominions and Colonies have organised notable displays in the London sections. Australia is showing wool and lace, the design of which is based on tracery of Henry VII Chapel in Westminster Abbey.

A dress parade will be held twice daily at White City in which fashions by London designers will be shown.

It is estimated that during the past week about 25,000 people have been directly employed in work connected with the opening of the Fair.

WILLINGDON AIR STATION

Opening Ceremony By Viceroy

New Delhi, Feb. 15. Lord Willingdon opened the Willingdon air station which is the old landing field enlarged at a cost of £20,000. The Viceroy said that India has been developing civil aviation rather slowly owing to stringency of finances but India expects to spend for civil aviation about two-thirds million pounds this year.

To-day also marked the end of the two-day round India 1,520 miles handicap air race for the Viceroy's Cup, corresponding to the King's Cup race in England, which was won by Lieutenant Misri Chand in a D. H. Moth plane. Chand's speed was 114 miles per hour and he flew part of the journey without a map, which he lost. Captain Muir won the trophy in the fastest time of 162 miles per hour.

BRITAIN WINS TWO TITLES

Garmisch, Feb. 18. In the ice hockey tournament, Canada beat the United States 1-0. Great Britain thus wins world Olympic and European titles. Elger Rind (Norway) won the special ski jump with jumps of 75 and 74.5 meters and 232 points.

Later, Britain secured five points, Canada four and United States three. Only the results of the final pool were counted except where teams have already met in the semi-final pools. These did not meet again in the final, but the semi-final result was counted. Thus Britain did not have to replay Canada in the final.

PLANE FLIES OVER ADAM'S PEAK

Colombo, Feb. 15. For the first time a plane flew over Adam's Peak, Ceylon's sacred mountain. Priests and pilgrims were very interested over the sight of a plane flying above them.

REARMAMENT IN BRITAIN

Position As Viewed In Italy

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Rome, Feb. 16. The British Government's rearmament policy is interpreted here generally as an abandonment of the attitude hitherto adopted by Britain towards the League of Nations.

The “Giornale d'Italia” writes that the rearmament measures envisaged by the British Government are causing much embarrassment but also to all the numerous adherents to the League of Nations in Britain and throughout the world.

The paper opines that “the irreconcilable contradiction” between the British naval measures in the Mediterranean on the one hand and the “idea of exclusively collective action by the League” on the other, is now frankly admitted by the British Cabinet whose rearmament programme, according to the paper, is inspired by the scepticism regarding the efficacy or even the possibility of such action.

The “Tribuna” observes that the idea of collective security guaranteed by the League Covenant is breaking down with the result that Britain is compelled to adopt the triple extensive programme of rearmament.

Norwegian Woman's Record

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Garmisch Partenkirchen, Feb. 15. Sonja Henie, nine times world champion, won the Olympic figure skating contest for women here on Saturday, thereby securing another gold medal for Norway. Miss Henie, who has already won the Olympic competition twice before at Lake Placid and at St. Moritz, showed faultless poise and grace in her performance, and was unanimously declared the victor by the International Committee of nine judges.

The 16-year-old English girl, Cecilia Colledge, who was runner-up to Miss Henie in the recent European championship competition at Berlin, again had to be content with second place, but appears to be destined to attain world championship honours sooner or later, especially since the Norwegian champion recently intimated her intention of withdrawing from international contests in the near future.

The third place and bronze medal was awarded to the Swedish girl, Vivianne Hjalten, while the next in the list were L. Landbeck (Belgium) and M. Vinson (America). 23 competed in the contest.

PEACE IN AMERICAN REPUBLICS

President Roosevelt Suggests Conference

Washington, Feb. 15. The inter-American peace conference suggested in President Roosevelt's letter to Senor Justo, President of Argentina and other Latin American Presidents proposes that the conference meet in Buenos Aires or other American capital to determine how the maintenance of the peace of the American Republics can best be safeguarded, perhaps through prompt ratification of all inter-American peace instruments already negotiated, and amendment of new instruments of peace.

It is believed that such steps will advance the cause of world peace as the agreements which might be reached would supplement and reinforce the efforts of the League of Nations and all other existing or future peace agencies.

President Roosevelt's letter adds that the recent Bolivian-Paraguayan agreement has gratified the United States where it is hoped there is now every prospect of a permanent and equitable solution of the tragic Gran Chaco controversy.

BRITISH TRADE RETURNS

Exports To Italy Affected

London, Feb. 15.

The overseas trade returns for January confirm the preliminary figures published on Wednesday. Working day averages are now available and show that exports were £1,378,281 per diem compared with £1,454,877 in December and £1,314,115 a year ago. The corresponding figures for imports were £2,593,472, £3,103,359, £2,283,750.

The sanctions imposed against Italy at the suggestion of the League's Co-ordination Committee and in fulfilment of obligations under Article 18 of the League Covenant have played a part in reduction of exports compared with January 1934. For example, of the fall of £403,000, in coal exports compared with previous January about £340,000 represented reduction of deliveries to Italian account.

Exports of herrings to Italy, which amounted to £14,089 in January 1934, only reached £955 last month and wool in various states sent a year ago to Italy to the value of about £96,000 is represented in most recent returns by export of £185.

Iron and steel exports to Italy have dropped from £23,044 to £4. There was a further relative expansion in 1935 in British trade with Empire countries. Exports to British countries rose to 48 per cent. of total exports from 46.9 per cent. in 1934. Re-exports were lower at 19.8 per cent. compared with 21.6 per cent. Imports from British countries represented 37.6 per cent. of all imports against 37.1 per cent. in 1934.

DOCKYARD STRIKE IN FRANCE ENDED

Compromise In Wage Reduction

St. Nazaire, Feb. 15.

The few strikes of dockyard workers here have been settled and work will be resumed on Monday. The settlement was reached as the result of a compromise whereby the lower paid workers will accept a reduction of 2½ per cent. in their wages, rising to 5 per cent. in the case of the higher paid workers.

MR. ALLAN HENDERSON

London, Jan. 25. By the death of Mr. Allan M. Henderson, West Academy Street, Lanarkshire, has lost one of its best-known Freemasons. Seventy-one years of age, Henderson was one of the oldest members of Lodge St. Mary, No. 31, Wishaw, and for nearly 20 years was Tyler of the lodge, an office which he held at the time of his death. He was a founder member of Camethan Royal Arch Chapter, No. 321, and a Past Principal and Tyler of that Chapter. Mr. Henderson was a Past Master of Wishaw Coltness Lodge of Ancient Free Gardeners and a Past Grand officer-bearer of that Order. The funeral takes place to-day with full Masonic honours.

PRECAUTIONS IN SPAIN ON ELECTION EVE

Radical Elements Renew Acts Of Violence

Madrid, Feb. 15. Extraordinary precautions have been taken to ensure orderly elections for the new Cortes to-morrow. In most of the large towns armoured cars with machine guns are patrolling the streets and troops are standing by in the barracks the whole day. In turbulent Barcelona these precautions will be observed for three days. Two destroyers are stationed at Algeciras to keep order in the south.

The outcome of the elections between the two powerful groups of the Right (National Counter-Revolutionary Front) and the Left (Popular Front) is doubtful though the position is slightly in favour of the former. Barcelona is expected to go to the left. The Prime Minister, Manuel Portela, heads the radical coalition Government. He leads the d'muntive Centre Party. Some of his followers appear in the Rightists' list while others stand for the Independents. The elections may result in Portela holding the balance of power and pave the way for formation of a National Government.—Reuter.

SERIOUS INCIDENTS

Madrid, Feb. 15. The last hours of the election campaign before the balloting takes place on Sunday was characterised by renewed acts of violence on the part of the radical elements.

In Lugo a government delegate was shot by Marxists and dangerously wounded.

A parish priest in Ronda was assaulted and beaten by a group from the Left Wing, extremists while distributing bread to the poor. The police pursued the assailants and engaged them in regular battle outside the town.

ROYAL NAVY

Launch Of The Newcastle

London, Jan. 22.

The cruiser “Newcastle” will be launched to-day from the yard of Vickers-Armstrongs, Limited, at Walker-on-Tyne. On account of the national mourning, the launch will be as quiet as possible, and the invitations to guests have been cancelled. The naming ceremony will be performed by the Duchess of Northumberland. This is the first launch to take place from the Walker yard of the company for some years, since the establishment was closed on the completion of the steamship Monarch of Bermuda in 1931.

The Newcastle is the first of the new class of cruisers, the first of the type which was decided to build in 1933 on account of developments abroad. Eight are now building or authorized, and all are named after cities of the United Kingdom. Compared with the Leander type, which preceded them, the displacement is increased from 7,000 to 9,000 tons and the horse-power from 72,000 to 75,000, but the designed speed is 32 instead of 32½ knots. The number of 6in. guns is increased from eight to 12, and of 4in. anti-aircraft guns from four to eight, but only six torpedo tubes will be fitted instead of eight. The Newcastle should be ready for her trials about a year hence.

The managing director of the newspaper “Action Française,” Charles Maurras against whom proceedings had been instituted on charges of incitement to murder, was questioned by the examining judge on Saturday. He will be held for trial. The paper's business manager M. Delest, has likewise been arrested on a similar charge.

HUGE FRENCH LOAN IN LONDON

Paris, Feb. 15.

It is understood that an agreement has been reached by the big banks on all technical points connected with the proposed large French loan in London. Only formal approval of the British and French Treasuries is required. There seems no reason to doubt that this forthcoming loan is expected to total forty to sixty million pounds sterling. Interest is likely to be three per cent.

EARL BEATTY'S HEALTH

London, Feb. 15. Earl Beatty's condition has improved, but still gives rise to some anxiety.

CHIEF INSPECTOR OF ORDNANCE

Captain E. R. D. Long, R.N., retired, has been appointed to succeed Captain F. R. Willis, C.B.E., R.N., retired, as Chief Inspector of Naval Ordnance, with effect from March 1, 1936. Captain Long has been a member of the Ordnance Committee at Woolwich since 1934, and was formerly an assistant in the Ordnance Supply Department. He was gunnery officer of the cruiser “Achilles” in the Grand Fleet during the war and was appointed a Deputy Director of Naval Ordnance in 1934.

S. CHINA "A" DEFEATED

UNINTERESTING GAME

Kowloon Drop To R. A. Lyemun

The thousands of football fans who left Caroline Hill after Saturday's "Soccer Derby," could hardly believe what they had just witnessed—the fall of South China "A"—who were forced for the first time to admit defeat at the hands of none other than the "B" team.

The game itself had been looked forward to by thousands, and was generally expected to be an exciting encounter between two formidable foes but everything pointed to the contrary. As was the result so unexpected, the same may be applied of the play, which was dull and did not provide any excitement at all.

Another aspect was the unexpected defeat of Kowloon by R. A. Lyemun.

POLICE SECURE EASY WIN

The Police produced championship form yesterday at the Kowloon Football Ground, when they defeated R. A. Stonecutters in a one-sided game by 2 goals to one. The match was a personal triumph for the Police forwards, particularly so for Johnston, their centre forward. He bagged half of the goals while all the other forwards found the net with the exception of Green.

Yesterday's performance augurs well for the custodians of the law, for next Saturday they meet the Hong Kong Club in a semi-final match for the Senior Shield.

The R. A. Stonecutters put up a very game fight against a team that was superior all round. They never gave up, and in fact kept pegging away, until in the final minutes of the game, Smith (inside left) registered a well-merited goal.

The Police were three up at half time, when Brooks and Johnston (2) found the net. Brooks, Moss, Stevens and Johnston (2) scored goals after the "breather" while Smith replied for the soldiers. His effort was the best in the match.

S. CHINA "B" WIN

The unbeaten record of South China "A" was shattered on Saturday when they were defeated by their fellow club—team South China "B" by the odd goal in five.

The match was not of a very exciting nature. The few and far between flashes of brilliance came mostly from the "B" team. The short passing movements of the "A" were of no avail against the quick and sure tackling of the "B" defence.

"B" TAKE LEAD
The "B" side took an early lead through an error on the part of Lau Mau who unfortunately headed the ball into his own goal from a centre from Yeung Shui-yick on this left. A short while only had elapsed when Ray Que-ling sent in a first timer which slipped through the hands of the goalkeeper to put the "A" team on even terms.

Five minutes after the first half the "A" took the lead. After a brilliant run by Tso, on the right wing, he transferred to Wong Mee-shun who shot with a first timer only to have it blocked by Lee Kam, but on the rebound he made no mistake.

The "B" team were, however, quickly on level terms again. Wong Wing failed to hold a low shot by Yeung, and Kam Shek-wai darted in and netted before the keeper could recover possession.

A PENALTY
A penalty awarded "A" for hands was taken by Lee Kwok-wai, now playing at inside-left, but Wong Wah-kei saved well, and at the other end, Wong Wing saved in fine style from Lal Shui-wing and Cheuk Shek-kam in rapid succession, during a scramble round the goalmouth.

During this raid, Lee Kwok-wai fouled Lal Shui-wing, and from the ensuing "spot" kick, Yeung Shui-yick made no mistake. This happened in the last four minutes, and the final whistle came with the "B" team just deserving their close win, and appearing very pleased with themselves withal.

I. R. C. MAKE FURTHER STEP TOWARDS LEAGUE HONOURS

Meritorious Win Over H. K. Club

CLUB'S POOR FIELDING

Individual high scoring featured the Cricket fixtures on Saturday, no less than ten players passing the half century mark. The spics of the programme was the vital match between the Indian Recreation Club and the Hong Kong Cricket Club. The first place in the league was dependent upon this match and full honours go to the I.R.C. for the meritorious win. By this result the H.K. C.C.C. are now out of the running for the premier honours. The only contender for the title is the K.C.C. who should the I.R.C. lost their remaining match and the K.C.C. win their remaining two, the Championship will go to Kowloon. The odds are against this happening but there is still a fighting chance left for Kowloon.

The Navy scored a fine win at King's Park over Craigen-gower, (thanks to a brilliant finishing of 63 not out by Lt. Branwell). The University drew with the Civil Service at Pokfulam in a high scoring match wherein J.E. Richardson scored 92 for the C.S.C.C. and E. L. Gosano 89 not out for the Undergraduates. The Army in a friendly match with Kowloon, won in a convincing manner, in which match Lt. Garthwaite just missed his century when he scored 81.

I. R. C. VS CLUB

Minu and Madar Shine

The Indian Recreation Club further consolidated their position at the head of the League Table when they were successful in the their match against the Hong Kong Club on the Sookunpoo ground, on Saturday.

In scoring 61 out of 110, Alec Pearce hit 11 boundaries, while A. H. Madar had 10 boundaries in his 82, scored out of 129.

FAVOURITES' DAY AT KWANTI MEET

THRILLS AND SPILLS GALORE

Mr. W.H.S. Davis Sent To Hospital

Racing fans were treated to a good day's sport yesterday at Kwanti when the Grand National Meeting of the Fanling Hunt and Race Club was held.

Exciting finishes were the order of the day and many were the spills that went with it.

Attendance on the whole was very gratifying considering the threatened inclement weather. Favourites had a busy day and dividends paid out were small. However it was left to Jock Scott to provide the sensation of the day when it romped home first to pay its 22 backers $57.40 each. Many exciting finishes were also witnessed.

EXCITING FINISHES

THE FEBRUARY HANDICAP

The inclement weather over in Hong Kong somewhat spoilt the attendance at Fanling and when the first race was scheduled to go off at 2.30 p.m., attendance was only moderate. The rain early on in the morning reduced the track to a nicely going should be on the even side and competition should be keen. Seven starters were set off by Mr. Potts with Ike in the lead. Estover soon overtook the leader and Ike and Josephine were trailing close behind. First round in found the same positions maintained and at 1 mile jump Soldier of Italy fumbled and Mr. W. H. S. Davis was unmounted and had to be brought in on a stretcher unconscious. The race developed into a struggle between Daylight Eve, Estover and Diogenes. The last named pony came up beautifully and on the stretch went all out to win from Daylight Eve by two lengths while Estover was half a length behind Daylight Eve.

THE AUSTRALIAN GRAND NATIONAL STEEPCHASE

A great race was witnessed in the 2 miles Steeplechase—the second event on the card. Four entrants faced the starting post and after the first hurdle Lucy Gitters was in the lead with Flummery, Morning Dew and The Giraffe in its wake near the first 1/4 mile the positions were: Lucy Gitters, The Giraffe and Flummery with Morning Dew left far behind. The race developed into a challenge between Lucy Gitters and The Giraffe, and for the remainder of the distance these two horses were fighting tooth and nail for supremacy. Lucy Gitters still held on to the lead and on the home stretch when everything was over bar shouting Mr. Harris on The Giraffe gracefully piloted the pony over the last hurdle, and in the last 100 yards sprint to the winning post. The Giraffe was able to nose out Lucy Gitters by half a length in one of the most exciting races seen for a long time.

THE FANLING GRAND NATIONAL AND PIERCE GROVE MEMORIAL CUP

Another thrilling race was provided in the "big race" of the day in "The Fanling Grand National and Pierce Grove Memorial Cup" over a 2 mile course when last year's winner "Pride of Tsingtao" repeated its performance by winning the event again by a very short head. Four ponies faced Mr. Potts and after the first quarter was reached Pride of Tsingtao took the lead with Racing Strain and Burgomaster following behind. Pride of Tsingtao and Burgomaster thereafter alternated places with Racing Strain dropping back to third position. These positions were being maintained until the last half mile when Glenshee made a spirited sprint but only to meet with a mishap at the last quarter mile jump. Luckily Mr. Harris did not receive anything but a "bar" shriek. The race between Pride of Tsingtao and Burgomaster was being intensified and everything pointed to the last hurdle. Pride of Tsingtao hesitated for just that fraction of a second and as soon as the hurdle was surmounted both jockeys applied their whips and it was Pride of Tsingtao who answered to win by just a short head.

THE JORROCKS PLATE—DIVISION "A"

Jock Scott surprised the backers of R.T.P. and West Parade by romping home first after being left behind during the greater part of "The Jorrocks Plate" Division "A" race. R.T.P. was leading with Spinaway and West Parade in the rear. At the half mile Jack O'Lantern came up to the second position, with West Parade still holding its third place, and when the ponies were turning the corner near the goal post Jock Scott came up to the fourth position.

On the stretch Jock Scott challenged the leaders and when the last two hurdles were being surmounted it had snatched the first position from R.T.P. which it held to the end. West Parade being third. Twenty two backers were rewarded with $87.40 each.

THE LADIES' COUNTRY RACE

Twelve starters entered for the romp in the country over a three mile course confined to ladies. The course was made slippery by the recent showers and Miss E. Turbett was unmounted. Punch led for sometime while The Loafer was also in the limelight. Going was slow and on the stretch Ebony Idol and Wembley Stag were going all out to win. However Ebony Idol won with a length to spare while The Loafer was many lengths behind. A curious feature of this race was all the "placed" ponies were owner ridden. Notable absentees in this race were the Fair sisters.

THE JORROCKS PLATE—DIVISION "B"

The favourite, Mortmain did not disappoint its backers in the "B" Division of "The Jorrocks Plate." Racing Spirit started off well by taking the lead in the first 1/4 mile of the race. Dalren was a close second followed by Mortmain. These positions were being upheld all along and when on the stretch Mortmain ably piloted by Mr. Ferguson came out in front to beat Dalren, which position it held to the finish, winning by 2 1/2 lengths from Dalren. Racing Spirit was third many lengths behind.

COMPANIES AMENDMENT

Draft Bill

The "Gazette" contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend further the Companies Ordinance, 1932.

It is explained that Section 251 (1) of the principal Companies Ordinance, No. 39 of 1932, contained a paragraph which provided that in a winding up all local rates due from the company at the relevant date, and having become due and payable within twelve months next before that date should be given a certain priority. That paragraph and two others giving priority to certain wages, were repealed and replaced by three new paragraphs which were enacted by section 5 of Ordinance No. 29 of 1933.

The reason for that amendment was to make the priorities of debts in the case of companies in liquidation coincide with those provided by section 38 (1) of the Bankruptcy Ordinance, No. 10 of 1931, for ordinary bankruptcies, amendment to this effect having been suggested by the Secretary of State in the final paragraph of his despatch to the Governor of the 1st June, 1933. Consequently for the paragraph relating to local rates there was substituted a paragraph giving to priority to all debts due from the Company to the Crown at the relevant date, and having become due and payable within twelve months next before that date.

LEVIED RATES

In this Colony rates are levied by the Government as representing the Crown and paid into the general revenues of the Colony. Provision for parochial and other local rates was therefore considered unnecessary.

It has been pointed out recently by His Majesty's Consular representatives at Shanghai that the 1933 amendment has had the effect of depriving the Municipal Council of the International Settlement of its claim to legal priority in respect of rates due by China Companies in liquidation although that Council receives preferential treatment where winding up takes place under the jurisdiction of the Belgian, French and Netherlands Authorities.

The object of this new amending Bill is to add a further paragraph which will restore the former priority of local rates in the case of China Companies, and Hong Kong China Companies, which are defined in section 348 of the principal Ordinance.

This special provision is limited to China Companies and Hong Kong China Companies. Such companies, though registered in Hong Kong, carry on their business within the limits of the China Order-in-Council and, for reasons of jurisdiction and otherwise, receive special treatment under the Companies Ordinance.

It is not considered necessary to extend the special priority to companies generally or to ordinary bankruptcies, as it does not appear to be in accordance with the general policy of English law, on which the law of the Colony is founded, to afford special facilities for the enforcement of rates imposed by foreign municipalities for their domestic purposes.

The introduction of this Bill has been approved by the Secretary of State in his despatch No. 5 of the 8th January, 1936.

GOOD FORECAST

Though difficult to forecast winners at the "Kwanti" meeting, "Stable Gossip" gave some remarkably accurate selections on Saturday.

He started off by picking Diogenes as winner in the opening race, and his choice for all three places in the second and third races was upheld. Two of his selections turned up in the fourth race and he had one in each of the next two races.

SWEEP TICKETS LOST

Fifteen books, containing 150 tickets (Nos. 68801 to 69950) in the Fanling Hunt and Race Club Sweepstakes, were recently lost on the Star Ferry, states a notification from the Director of the Brigade, Mr. Alfred Morrison. These tickets have since been cancelled and will not be included in the main draw.

BRAWN CUP HOCKEY

D.G.S. Beat Schoolgirls

As a result of a victory gained by the Diocesan Girls' School at the expense of the Central British Schoolgirls, by one goal to nil on Saturday at King's Park, the Hong Kong Ladies have won the Brawn Cup during the first year of its inception. The game played between the two school girls sides, was evenly contested throughout, with Miss June Hall, the D.G.S. custodian very prominent, while Miss M. McCaw the C.B.S. pivot was very conspicuous with her spilling work.

A fine of $50 or, in default, one month's imprisonment was imposed by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy on Saturday, on Chan Ho, (63) for keeping house No. 15, Queen's Road Central, for immoral purposes. Sub Inspector Thorpe prosecuted.

Applications for the confiscation of 200 cabbages of sugar, and 700 cabbages of salt were made at the Central Magistracy on Saturday. It was stated that the sugar and salt were found on board the s.s. Lung Shan at the Canton Wharf on Friday. A similar application was made to the Magistrate regarding 14 lbs. of Chinese tobacco found on board the s.s. Sul Tai.

On the U.S.R.C. ground on Saturday, the Kowloon Indians Tennis Club defeated the Royal Corps of Signals by 3 goals to 2 in a Marnak Tournament game. The Signals opened their account with a goal through a penalty-bully, May scoring, but in the second half Avlar Singh equalized for the K.I.T.C. and I.M. Singh sent them ahead soon after. Another penalty-bully against the Indians again saw May score to bring the scores level, but Pind placed the issue beyond doubt soon after with a fine goal for the Indians.

BOATMAN BOUND OVER

Accused Tells Story Of Assault

That interest had not abated in the assault case involving an Aberdeen boatman and his ex-sweetheart, was evinced at the Central Magistracy on Saturday, when a crowded court room heard Wong Tung, the accused, give his version of the alleged incident. The accused did not deny being on board the complainant's sampan, but contended that she attacked him. In gripping her wrist while she had a chopper, the girl was accidentally cut about the face and the throat.

The defendant stood charged with assault "with intent to cause grievous bodily harm" to Cheng Tai Tai, "a kept woman" on board boat No. 3292A in Aberdeen harbour, off Apichau on January 22, last month.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the Magistrate remanded the accused in police custody, for 48 hours in order to enable him to find two sureties in $200 to keep the peace for one year. This would be required in addition "to any other penalty that I may impose."

Sub-Inspector O'Donovan appeared for the prosecution, while the accused was not legally represented.

STORY OF ATTACK

The defendant, occupying the witness stand, said that he was a boatman, married with no children. His wife stayed in Kowloon City. "I have known the complainant for five years, but I had not visited her for two years until a day before the incident. At 8 p.m. on January 21, I went to see her and spent the night on her boat, leaving the next morning (the day of the alleged assault). "I went to Hong Kong returning to Aberdeen a few hours later. As I was crossing from Aberdeen to Apichau, the complainant called out to me. I went on board her sampan and took off my shoes and hat. I lay down and read a newspaper. The complainant then asked me to lend her some money. I said I had no money. She commenced to abuse me and I retorted. She then got hold of a chopper."

THE ASSAULT

Regarding the assault, the accused said: "She tried to hit my chest with the flat part of the blade. I was leaning backwards at the time. I seized her wrist but she shook her hands about and during the struggle I cut her. I then pushed her away, and she cut herself during the struggle. She had her hand over her eyes and we were pushing the knife against each other.

I lay down again and she attempted another assault. I seized her wrist and the chopper fell to the floor. She picked it up in such a manner that the sharp edge was towards her. I seized the chopper and pushed it backwards against her. I had got up by this time and knocked her down. She saw that she was bleeding and gave me a push. I fell against the side of the hood which was loose, and fell overboard. I swam ashore and ran uphill where I took off my jacket and trousers. I was later arrested in my short pants."

At this point the prosecuting officer said that the clothes were not recovered as the defendant did not direct the police to the spot.

The Magistrate: When she (complainant) picked up the chopper and came for you, did it not occur to you to dive overboard?—I tried to snatch it away from her. The Magistrate remarked that it seemed extraordinary that the accused went on board the complainant's sampan in the middle of the day. If robbery was his motive, surely he would have visited her at night.

RESULT OF A SQUABBLE

Det. Inspector O'Donovan said that the prosecution did not believe that the accused went on board to rob. It was likely that he had attempted to get some money. A quarrel might then have ensued, during which the accused lost his temper.

The Magistrate: I am pretty certain the assault was premeditated.

Sub-Inspector O'Donovan: I do not think so, Your Worship.

The Magistrate said that he would take into consideration the extenuating circumstances of the case, and ordered a 48 hours remand.

The accused will make his final appearance before the court this morning, when sentence is expected to be pronounced.

IF GOSSIP WE MUST

We hope these two nice people will be very happy, and have a wonderful honeymoon going home via Canada.

A TEA PARTY

St. John Ambulance in the lime light again! This time they staged a marvellous tea party at the Gloucester Building in honour of Dr. Moore who to the regret of his enormous circle of friends is going home for good shortly. Dr. and Mrs. Dovey and Mr. and Mrs. Ralston were also guests of honour as they are going on leave by the same ship this week.

I am sure most people do not realise what tremendous number of St. John's Brigade there is in Hong Kong. It was a heartening sight, looking at those rows upon rows of white capped Chinese nurses, and Khaki clad men. They do such a power of good amongst the sick and the poor of their own race, and they are so keen about their work. And there is such a fine spirit of comradeship amongst them.

Never have I listened to so many speeches, and never have I been less bored by same. So many members of the Association and Committee had something to say, and said it well, especially the Chinese gentleman, who produced roars of laughter in his own language from all and sundry. If we, personally, didn't understand we got our neighbour to translate the bigger jokes in between whilst!

Dr. Moore was given a beautiful ivory figure—an emblem of "Long Life," and Mr. and Mrs. Ralston and the two Drs. Dovey were given "Leave presents" too. Dr. Dovey senior made us laugh not a little when he compared himself to "a rat in a trap which had been sprung on him!" How I envy the lucky possessors of that marvellous social gift of being able to "say a few words" to hundreds of people with no notice at all. Dr. Dovey junior (I hope she will not be offended at such a title) told the nurses in beautifully chosen words how very pleased she was with their work in a recent test.

And so ended a most cheering Chinese-English party.

AT THE "GRIPS"

The Grips was at its brightest and best on Friday night. All the fashionable Hong Kong world, seemed to be there, and there were quite a number of our German visitors to be seen too. Owing to the difficulty of being in several places at the same time I had to refuse the nice invitation to the Karlsruhe, but from all accounts their cocktail party was a great success.

To return to "The Grips" I saw so many people I knew that I hardly know where to begin. An enormous party included Colonel and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. Jack MacGregor, Mrs. Lovatt, Mrs. Tower, who, we are glad to see, has dispensed with her sling, although she still has to wear a bandage on her arm which she injured in a riding accident.

Mrs. Bishop looked most striking in black dancing with Mr. Eric Nelson, and Dr. and Mrs. Valentine were footing it beautifully together as usual.

Miss Yvonne Shenton wore that tomato colour which suits her so admirably, and I loved her gold clips. The Dodwell family (younger members thereof) arrived in a body, looking most attractive. Diana wore white satin, and Ann and her cousin both wore black, the latter's dress having the most intriguing little brocade colour.

Mr. and Mrs. James Prior came with a large American party including Mrs. Charles Gies whose husband is away I believe. Mrs. Paget of A.D.C. fame looked lovely in a gold tunic affair with a Grecian look about it, and Mrs. Cramer looked delightful in a white lace jumper over a black skirt.

Mrs. Armstrong was having a party a deux with her husband, and they both looked more than usually cheerful and happy.

Madame Nura Kainis was very beautiful in dark wine colour, and we were full of admiration for a lady unknown in a perfectly cut black dress with heavy white necklace which was her only ornament.

"Andre and His Orchestra" were in tremendous form, and as usual the piano solos were too lovely.

"AT HOME" ON KARLSRUHE

Colony Residents Entertained

On Friday last, Commander Fregattenkapitän Siemens, and the members of the German Cruiser invited the German Community and several non-Germans to an "At Home" on board the cruiser.

On our arrival, we were greeted by the officer in charge, who stood at the stairs, and then by Commander Fregattenkapitän Siemens, who had a hearty word of welcome for each guest. Immediately after this, officers, cadets or petty-officers took charge of the guests. The aft-deck was covered in so as to present a picture of a drawing room, decorated by the British and the German Naval Flags, only that the guns under the "roof" presented an unusual sight for a "drawing room."

At each table sat one of the members of the cruiser, who with courtesy entertained us, while others served us with German wine and biscuits, cigars and German cigarettes which were lavishly handed around. Many of the guests were then shown round the cruiser.

After all guests had arrived and everybody had settled down, the dance orchestra of the cruiser intoned a Fox Trot, and with this the last lingering idea of being on a Warship vanished, and for the rest of the afternoon, a pleasant time was spent in dancing and chatting.

SPIRIT OF FRIENDSHIP

The sincere spirit of friendship which had arisen during the short stay of the cruiser between the members of the ship and the people of Hong Kong was once more evidenced by the exchange of addresses for letters and the ever renewed promise of "be sure and write, and send photos."

At 6 p.m. the gathering rose to silently greet the Flags which were brought in, and then the brass band of the cruiser played two or three military pieces, after which the end of the pleasant afternoon was indicated by the band playing the German National Anthem and "God Save the King."

Commander Siemens once more shook hands with his guests, and expressed his thanks for the cordial reception he, and his crew had received in the Colony, and with much regret the guests left the "Karlsruhe." (W. L.)

DANCE AT CHINA FLEET CLUB

The Royal Engineers' Old Comrades Association held another very successful dance at the China Fleet Club on Saturday night when over 150 couples attended, including many civilians and members of the crew of the German cruiser Karlsruhe.

Once again the band of the Royal Ulster Rifles provided an excellent programme of music. The next dance—Leap Year Dance—will be held on Saturday, 29th. Inst. at the same place.

Some body said "those white drums look so much more like butter churns than musical instruments." True enough, but the sound thereof is another matter.

A recent and charming arrival, Miss Ursula Tulloh, whom we are seeing constantly at all the gayer parties, was dancing at the "Grips" last Saturday, looking vital and lovely in a frock of palest green crepe, cleverly treated with brilliant. Before her venture to the Far East, Miss Tulloh travelled extensively on the continent, and is as much at home on skis on the Bavarian slopes as she is on board the yacht on which she spends much of her time on the Broads.

Another fair visitor, who has come all the way from Jamaica to compare the Island Jewel of the East with that of the West, is Miss Eileen Short. She is always exquisitely dressed, and if anyone can look more lovely than she did the other night, wearing a frock of rustling silk in a heavenly shade of softest peach all I can say is "Why don't they?" She is frequently seen dining and dancing with Mr. Barry Deane, almost all our loveliest lovelies are frequently seen dining and dancing with Mr. Barry Deane.

CHINA'S DEVELOPMENT

Visitor Notes Tremendous Progress Made

Shanghai, Feb. 11.

The enormous strides made in communication, sanitation, education and industry in China during the past six years were described by Dr. Donald C. Jackson, Professor Emeritus of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and president of the American Society of Electrical Engineers, at a meeting of the Pan-Pacific Association at the Astor House Hotel yesterday. Dr. Jackson chose as his subject "Recent industrial developments in China and the Far East."

Dr. Jackson said that a great deal of his time during his visit to the Far East had been spent in absorbing the problems of education and industrial practices of Japan and China. There were, he continued, certain very interesting similarities between Japanese industrialization and that of the United States. They had both been copyists, and they had both reached the stage when they were able to carry on their industrial systems on their own initiative. When he first visited Japan about six years ago, the people were just beginning to emerge from the period when they were merely copyists. When a nation could manufacture its own machinery and instruments it ceased to be a copyist and when he was in Japan he had seen a factory where 10,000 motor-cars were turned out every year. They were, however, using American machinery in their manufacture.

BUILDING OWN MACHINERY

If the Japanese continued their industrial development, they would be able to build their own machinery, because they had now reached the stage where they were able to do this. Japan for 40 years had been an ardent copyist, but for the past six or seven years she had been able to stand on her own feet, and people in the West had better make up their minds that Japan was a very powerful contender for supremacy in the field of international products.

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Review

Saturday, Feb. 15.

Messrs. G. A. Harriman and Co.'s weekly share report and market review issued at noon on to-day states:—

The market was again rather quiet with rates a little easier during the week under review but offerings were very small and buying orders were not always easy to fulfil amongst the more popular counters owing to the scarcity of scrip, and the slightest turn in the market would no doubt cause rates to improve overnight. Hongkong Electric played the role of market leadership, and a very large turnover was put through at $72 1/2 cash and corresponding rates for forward deliveries. Telephones (old) attracted some attention with business done at the opening at $28.40, but receded to a buying rate of $26 at the close. Hongkong Trams touched $12.85 at one time closing better with buyers at $13.00 cash and $13.15 April after a fair volume of business done @ $13 1/4 April. Star Ferris declined to $87 (ex dividend) with business done at this rate. Hongkong Lands were dormant with shares obtainable at $35. Dairy

Farms changed hands at the slightly reduced rate of $21.75.

Minor issues showed no material change. China Lights fluctuated between $11.10 and $11.30 with a good forward demand. Cements came to business at $37.50/80 and Hotels at $51. Providents (old) had buyers at $190 and sellers at $2. Small lots of Sinceres were dealt in at $2.210. Sterling counters were somewhat quiet

though Unions were done at $555/

562 1/2 during the week. The tone of the market at the close is very steady and shows definite signs of more active to come.

Business during the week has been done at the following prices:—

Unions, $502 1/2.

Antamoks, $1.60/1.61.

Hongkong Electric, $72 1/2/73.

Cements, $37.50/9.00.

Star Ferris, $85 1/2/86 (c.d.) $87

x.d.)

Lights (old), $11.10/11.35.

Lights (new), $3/8.10.

Dairy Farms, $21.75.

Providents (old), $2/2.10.

Hongkong Lands, $35.

Hongkong Trams, $12.80/13.30.

Hongkong Ropes, $5.85/5.75.

Hongkong Wing On, $55.

Telephones (old), $26/26.40.

Shanghai, Wing On, $87.

Watsons, $1.75/1.80.

Underwriters, $108.
